Participation Rules for Japan Content Showcase 2018

Exhibition Rules

The company or organization to participate (hereinafter the Exhibitor) in the Japan Content Showcase (JCS) 2018 (hereinafter the Exhibition) shall exhibit pursuant to the terms and conditions provided in the Exhibition Rules (hereinafter the Rules). The term Organizer used herein shall mean the JCS Organizer's Office (hereinafter the Organizer).

Article 1. Method of Application for Exhibition and Conditions for Concluding Agreement Application

1. Applicants shall provide the required information in the Exhibitor Application Form & Agreement (hereinafter the Form) issued by Organizer and shall send the printed Form affixed with the signature or name and seal of the applicant to Organizer by E-mail, or you may use an online Form which can be found on the website (Official website: <http://www.jcs.tokyo/en/>) to apply online. The applicant shall have administrative authority over the handling of relevant operations with the relevant job title at his / her company or organization.
2. Upon receipt of the Form, and after checking the entries are sufficient and satisfactory, Organizer will examine whether the requested exhibition is adequate or not (The content of the examination will not be disclosed.) Upon passing the examination, Organizer will notify the applicant by e-mail attesting the acceptance. The Exhibition Reservation will be established on the date Organizer sent the notification to the applicant by e-mail (hereinafter the Reference Date).
3. In the event Organizer decides after the examination of the application that the application is not appropriate for the purpose of the Exhibition (Organizer will not disclose the criteria of the screening), Organizer may, at its own discretion, refuse the application.

Article 2. Billing and Payment of Booth Fee

1. If the Exhibition Reservation is established based on Article 1 herein, the Exhibitor shall make payments in the method specified in the invoice issued by the Organizer. Exhibitors in Japan shall cover the money transfer fee. Overseas exhibitors will be charged 10,000 yen as a handling fee.
2. In the event the payment was made by the applicant, Exhibition Agreement becomes established when the payment is confirmed. After that the applicant comes to be able to exercise its rights as Exhibitor.
3. In the event the applicant fails to make the payment based on the paragraph 1 above, Organizer may deem the Exhibition Reservation was cancelled.

Article 3. Cancellation of Exhibition Agreement and Cancellation Charge

1. Proposals from Exhibitor after the establishment of Exhibition Agreement to cancel the Agreement, or to reduce the number of booths are not accepted in principle.
2. Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, if Exhibitor wishes to cancel the Exhibition Agreement or reduce the number of booths due to special circumstances, Exhibitor shall send to Organizer a letter clearly stating such reasons, or send an E-mail notice to propose cancellation of the Agreement or reduction of the number of booths. In the event Organizer accepts the cancellation of the Exhibition Agreement or reduction in the number of booths, Exhibitor may cancel the whole or part of the Exhibition Agreement on condition that Exhibitor shall pay the following cancellation charge or partial cancellation charge in proportion to the period from the day of proposal to cancel the Agreement or to reduce the number of booths to the opening day of the Exhibition (hereinafter collectively called Cancellation Charge) to Organizer by the day Organizer stipulates:
(1) If the Exhibitor cancels part or all of the booths after the Exhibition Application / Agreement is concluded, and if the date of cancellation request notice is the following day of the date three months prior to the first day of the Exhibition, the amount of cancellation charge or partial cancellation charge shall be 100% of the predetermined booth fee shall be paid as the Cancellation Fee. If the period from the date of cancellation request to the first day of the Exhibition is more than three months, the amount equivalent to a 20% of the predetermined booth fee shall be paid as the Cancellation Fee.
(2) In the event Exhibitor does not begin using the booths by 10:00 a.m. of the opening day of the Exhibition, Exhibitor's exhibition shall be deemed cancelled and 100% of booth fee applied for shall be charged as Cancellation Charge.
3. Should Exhibitor have already paid to Organizer the whole or part of the booth fee at the point Exhibitor made the cancellation notice pursuant to the preceding paragraph, or at the point Exhibitor was deemed to have cancelled exhibition, the Cancellation Charge provided in each of the preceding paragraphs shall be appropriated from such already-paid Booth Fees, and should there be remaining amount after the appropriation, the amount shall be returned to Exhibitor pursuant to the method and return date Organizer specifies.

Article 4. Exhibition Booth Fee

Booth Fee shall be as shown in the "Exhibitor Information" posted on Organizer's official website.

Article 5. Determination of Booth Location

Booth location shall be determined by Organizer.

Article 6. Prohibitions

(5) Exhibition or acts offensive to public order and morals.
(6) Exhibition of adult content which are forbidden to view for the person under 18.
(7) Such exhibition is prohibited making collection of visitor's personal information the main object, without exhibiting products the exhibitor handles in the booth, not conducting any sales promotion activities for products or services.

Article 7. Joint Exhibition

In the event 2 or more companies or organizations jointly apply for exhibition, one of the companies or organizations shall be designated as the Representative Exhibitor. Organizer shall make the application and the name and contact information of the other exhibitor shall be informed to Organizer separately. Contacts or delivery of visitor's guide or other necessary items from Organizer shall be made only to Representative Exhibitor. For more details, please refer to "Exhibitor Manual."

Article 8. Installation of Exhibits, Decoration of Booth and Removal

The Exhibition is intended to exhibit exhibits and other items are to be brought in from foreign countries. Exhibitor shall let them through the customs clearance and other formalities in advance on its own responsibility. Issues concerning music copyrights and other copyrights involved in the exhibits shall be dealt with by Exhibitor on its own responsibility. Also, whether or not to give permission to Exhibitors and participants for photographing, sound recording and other recording with regard to the exhibits shall be decided by Exhibitor on its own responsibility. Exhibitor shall also be responsible for giving permission to Press and others for photographing, sound recording and secondary use of exhibits and artists. The Organizer will shoot the venue, exhibitor booths, etc. to record the Exhibition and the Organizer shall have the right of the shot video.
1. Delivery and installation of exhibits and other items shall be carried out within a period informed by Organizer separately. However, installation of exhibits in the booths shall be finished no later than the day preceding the opening day of the Exhibition. Should Exhibitor does not occupy its booth by 10:00 a.m. of the opening day of the Exhibition, Organizer shall deem the Exhibition Agreement cancelled. (Claiming Cancellation Charge shall be applied).
2. Decorating the booth shall be done according to the rules provided in the Exhibitor Manual.
3. Decorations in breach of the rules in the Exhibitor Manual shall be subject to removal.
4. When Exhibitor delivers, carry out or move exhibits during the Exhibition, Exhibitor shall obtain Organizer's approval without fail before implementing these operations. During the Exhibition, bringing-in, carrying-out, removing and returning of exhibits cannot be done without the approval of Organizer. Also, with regard to bringing-in, carrying-out of exhibits and other items, exhibition and decoration, Exhibitor shall follow the Rules of Use of the site, Disaster Prevention Guideline, the Fire Service Act and other regulations. As for damage or loss of standard decorative articles set in a standard booth, Exhibitor shall be responsible for restoration to original state, provided, however, that this shall not apply to the cases where such damage or loss is attributable to act of God or other disaster or is due to the reasons admitted by the Organizer.
5. Carrying-out of exhibits and decorative articles within the booth must be finished within the period informed by Organizer. Articles not carried out within such period shall be removed by Organizer at the expense and risk of Exhibitor. Other than mentioned above, installation and removal of exhibits and other items shall be performed following the provisions set forth in the Exhibitor Manual.
6. By the Fire Prevention Ordinance of Tokyo, it is prohibited in the Exhibition site to smoke outside the prescribed place, use naked fire, bring in hazardous objects, place things in the aisles and emergency exits, indoor hydrants and fire extinguishers, which become hindrance to their use.

Article 9. Indemnity

1. The Organizer, for any case, assumes no responsibility whatsoever for any injury or damage to persons, goods, and facilities that are attributed to the use or occupancy of booth by the Exhibitor and its employee or agent.
The Exhibitor shall guarantee the safe use of booth to the Organizer at its own risk and shall accept liability for all damages should there be any accident. Any accidents shall be reported to the Organizer immediately.
2. While the Organizer pays great attention to the management, safety and security of the Exhibition and exhibits at all times during the Exhibition period, it assumes no responsibility for any theft, loss, of the exhibits or a fire disaster in the booth of the Exhibitor caused by human negligence. Therefore, the Exhibitor shall take all possible measures for the prevention of a theft, loss of exhibit and building material and of accidental fire at its own risk by covering the exhibits with damage insurance, for example, during the period between the day the Exhibits are delivered into venue and from the venue. Please pay great attention while moving in and out of your goods.

3. The Organizer shall refund the Booth Fee on a pro-rata basis according to the remaining number of days of the Exhibition in compensation to unavailability of booth use only if the Organizer cancels the Exhibitions due to any self-responsible reason, which shall cover any and all compensations. In addition, the Organizer shall accept no responsibility for any damage caused to the Exhibitor as a result of unanticipated situation such as the occurrence of damage by a direct or indirect natural disaster, or as a result of an order or instruction by national or local governments or by acts of God.

Article 10. Postponement and Cancellation of the Exhibition

1. In the event Organizer concluded that it is difficult or impossible to hold the Exhibition due to natural disaster or other force majeure event, Organizer may decide to postpone or suspend the Exhibition.
2. Even if holding of the Exhibition is postponed or canceled pursuant to the preceding paragraph, Organizer shall not refund the booth fee to Exhibitor.

Article 11. Termination

(2) Bank suspension was implemented, or became insolvent.
(3) Revocation or suspension of business was ordered by regulatory agency.
(4) If the Organizer determines that the Exhibitor or any planned exhibit is inappropriate to the purpose of holding the Exhibition, or if the Organizer decides that the Exhibitor's presentation is socially unsound because a civil, a criminal, or an administrative issue that can affect the public confidence of other Exhibitors is concerned, or an illegal or unjustifiable conduct, or criminal offense, or other act is conducted or is likely.
(5) In the exhibition of the preceding items, Exhibitor is in breach of the whole or part of the Rules or the Exhibition Manual, etc. and despite the demand from Organizer such defects are not remedied during the reasonable period of time Organizer provided.
2. In the event Organizer terminated the Exhibition Agreement under this Article, Organizer shall not be prevented from demanding compensations including the Cancellation Charge under Article 3.

Article 12. Governing Law and Agreed Jurisdiction

The Rules and Exhibition Agreement shall be governed by the laws of Japan, and as for lawsuits under the Rules and Exhibition Agreement, the district court having jurisdiction over the location of the head office of Organizer shall be the competent court of the first instance.

Article 13. Operation of the Exhibition and Exemption of Liability

Organizer may establish various rules and make amendments thereto to implement smooth operation. Also it may newly stipulate matters not stipulated herein, making various additions or amendments. Organizer may suspend holding of the Exhibition due to natural disaster or other unforeseen contingency. In that event, already paid-up exhibition fee and the loss caused by the suspension shall not be compensated. Organizer may change the period of the Exhibition and its opening time due to unavoidable circumstances. Cancellation of application for the Exhibition on account of such changes shall not be accepted. Also, the loss caused by such changes shall not be compensated.

Approval of Exhibition Rules and Display Rules

All exhibitors shall approve and observe the Rules, Exhibitor Manual and the rules established and sent to exhibitors by Organizer.

These exhibitors shall be subject to change and amendment. For the latest version, please check the official website at the time of application.
